Classifying your goods - Frequently Asked Questions

Jump to other links in this section:

Q. If I am costing my goods what duty rate is applicable?

A. The rate of import duty is provided by the National Advice Service \(NAS\) by contacting 0845 010 9000 and providing them with the commodity code for the

Q. Can you provide me with the commodity code for my goods?

A. We can provide verbal advice as to the commodity code for the product. To do so we need to know exactly what the goods are in order to give help you identify the relevant commodity code. We must point out that this is only verbal 'advice', if you require a written ruling then you will need to apply for Binding Tariff Information.

Q. Will I be required to send a sample(s) of the goods?

A. Yes, generally if you are able to send a representative sample(s) of the good will assist the Tariff classification officers in making their decision. For some goods such as textiles, shoes and ceramics samples are usually required.

Q. Can I have the sample(s) returned to me?

A. Yes, postage stamps (only) may be enclosed with the sample or you may make arrangements for collection (e.g. by courier).

Q. Where can I obtain a BTI application form?

A. To obtain a BTI application form call the Tariff Classification Service on 01703 555555 selecting option 0.

Q. How long does it take for the Tariff Classification Service to reach a decision?

A. Provided that you have given us all the information regarding the goods we will issue with a BTI decision within 10 working days, from the time of acceptance of your application.

Q. Where can I see a copy of the Customs Tariff?

A. The Integrated Tariff of the United Kingdom, (Tariff for short), can be seen at most main reference libraries, or you can purchase the 3 Volume set from TSO Publications Centre. For general advice and information ring our National Advice Service.

Q. Is there a list of the commodity codes for the most popular products?

Q. How can I obtain further information on exporting my goods?

A. From British Trade International, a joint DTI and Foreign Office organisation has replaced the DTI Overseas Trade Services, British Overseas Trade Board and Joint promotion Directorate). It has lead responsibility within government for all promotion and development activities of the two departments on behalf of British businesses. This involves the production of guidance, advice and materials materials
